MAP

Beginning April 24, we are kicking off our MAP Test. This is a great time
for students to show off their knowledge.
Encourage
students to get a great night's sleep and breakfast
everyday!

Week at the Week

Reader's Workshop: Noticing and breaking down a feature article and all the elements that make it.

Writer's Workshop: Building a research project to then write a feature article about the project.

Math Workshop: Multiplying fractions by a whole number and conversion of measurements.

Science: Exploring living things. Beginning with plants and then moving into food chains.

Congrats to
